MRS. TERRY GARDNER
(Carrington Photo)

Giaquinto-Gardner

Miss Karen Giaquinto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Giaquinto, 2228 Gramercy Ave., walked down the aisle of the Nativity Catholic Church, on the arm of her father, at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, Oct. 9, to exchange vows with Terry Pitt Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gardner, of Eugene, Oregon.

Her wedding gown was of angelskin peau de soie trimmed in embroidered Alencon lace. The gown was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, elbow length sleeves and an A-line skirt enhanced with the Alencon lace motifs. The gown had a detachable chapel train. A peau de soie pillbox held her short full illusion veil. Her bouquet was of miniature roses, carnations, stephanotis and phalaenopsis.

Wearing long coral chiffon gowns, over taffeta, and carrying bouquets of chrysanthemums, garnet roses and carnations, bridal attendants were Miss Jean Giaquinto, as her sister's maid of honor; Misses Joanne Dowling and Marie Castener, bridesmaids. Susan Venable, also in coral chiffon, was flower girl.

Best man duties were performed by Thomas King and ushers were Pete Gobel and Nick Giaquinto, Jr. Steven Venable was ring bearer.

Rev. William O'Toole officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony and mass. The 150 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the parish hall.

Following a honeymoon, with destination unannounced, the bridal couple will be at home at 1735 Lincoln Ave., Torrance.

The bride, a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, is employed by the City of Torrance.

Her husband was graduated from the Eugene, Oregon High school and served three years with the United States Army. He is employed by National Supply in Torrance.

Sam Neelys Honored on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sam Neely of Palos Verdes, long-time residents of this area, were guests of honor at a dinner party on Sept. 25 celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary.

The party was given at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mandala in Redondo with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Neely of Whittier as co-hosts. Among the 25 guests attending were Mr. Neely's four sisters, Mmes. H. R. Richard, Jack Quigley, and Mabel Braswell, all of Torrance; and Mrs. Virginia Russell of Los Angeles.

Also among the special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Thomsen of Torrance. Mr. Thomsen was best man at the wedding 30 years ago which took place at the home of Mrs. Richards in Torrance.

Other relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Mandala, Mrs. Cecelia Martin and Mrs. Christine O'Donnell of Downey; and Mrs. Neely's mother, Mrs. Alice Wilburn.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Kenneth Woolbert, Palos Verdes; Homer St. Martin, San Pedro; William Rogers, Rolling Hills; and Leonard Kapner, Arcadia.

E. H. Youngs Celebrate Silver Day

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Young, 24904 Cypress St., Lomita, were guests of honor at a surprise party on Saturday, Sept. 17, celebrating their Silver Wedding anniversary.

The party was held at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick A. Watson, 26420 Ozon Ave., Harbor City. Also serving as hostesses were the couple's twin daughters, Carol and Carolyn Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Young are natives of Carthage, Mo., and moved to the Torrance-Lomita area 15 years ago. They were married Sept. 21, 1940 in Missouri.

Many friends and relatives were present for the anniversary celebration including Mr. and Mrs. Archie C. Wright, school friends of the honored couple.

Another surprise, adding to the evening, was a telephone call from Mrs. Young's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scott of Jasper, Mo.

Offer Concert-Goers Bus Transportation

Mrs. Maurice B. T. Davies, season ticket chairman of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, is now taking reservations for bus transportation to the Nov. 26 matinee performance at the Pavilion of the Music Center. This bus service will again be available to members of the Committee and non-member residents of the Peninsula and San Pedro areas.

A fee comparable to that of reserved parking at the Music Center will be charged for the round trip for each of the ten concerts in the series. This season, luxury coaches will leave St. Francis Church at 9:45 a.m. with additional stops at Rolling Hills and Palos Verdes Drive North at Western. One downtown stop will be made for the convenience of passengers. For the return trip, concert-goers will board the coaches at the Music Center entrance. Conductor Zubin Mehta will be on the podium for the opening Friday matinee scheduled for Nov. 26 at 2 o'clock. Soprano Victoria de los Angeles will be the guest soloist.

An additional attraction for Friday matinee ticket-holders is the group of five preview lectures given at the Music Center preceding the concert. Maestro Mehta will be the speaker at the first preview lecture, which will be on Dec. 10 at 10:45 a.m. Each lecture is open to the public free of charge.
